

Florala Historical Society Membership Application

The Florala Historical Society is dedicated to preserving the rich history of our region. Through various initiatives, we aim to educate and engage the community, ensuring that our past remains alive and vibrant. We invite all history enthusiasts to join us in this important mission. Together, we can celebrate and honor our heritage.

Membership is open to anyone interested in the history of Florala and the surrounding area. We meet quarterly and undertake projects throughout the year to save and restore historical relics.

To join, please complete the information below and submit it to our membership chairperson, Sandi Scroggins, along with your annual dues. Send to: P.O. Box 543, Florala, AL 36442.
